

The Elkmont Camp

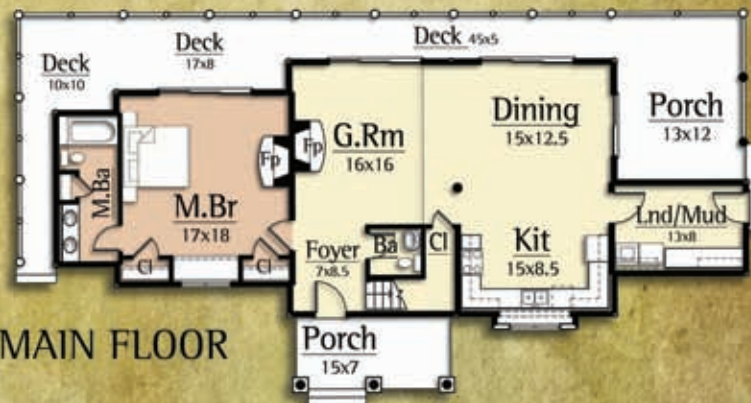

enclave began in early 1900's when individuals bought land from the Little River Lumber Company to build vacation cottages. Beginning as a rough and tumble logging town, Elkmont gradually evolved into a haven for the socially prominent and wealthy in what is now The Great Smoky Mountains National .

The Elkmont Camp by MossCreek, captures this same spirit of rustic luxury with 3 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, with a master on the main level. A large story and a half vaulted Great Room with exposed log trusses and an open Kitchen / Dining Room complete a dramatic interior. Exterior log detailing completes the feel of this modern mountain camp. Copyright 2008 MossCreek
